

ES174335

Town House, Alora, Málaga

114,500€

This spacious 4 bedroom , 2 bathroom village house is located in a residential street of Álora pueblo. It is built on a 90m2 plot and the main accommodation extends to 105m2 and is distributed over two levels. At street level one enters into a welcoming reception room which leads through to a nice , bright , spacious living/ dining/ kitchen. There is also a double bedroom with an ensuite shower room and access to a private terrace on this level. A family bathroom completes the accommodation on this level. A staircase leads from the reception room to the 1st floor which hosts 3 generously proportioned bedrooms, one of which enjoys access to an upper terrace which hosts views across Alora pueblo to the Andalusian countryside beyond. In addition to the main accommodation, this property has a semi-basement room from which one can access the rear patio off of which are two further semi-basement rooms. The patio also enjoys access from the parallel street thus offering potential for further development of the semi- basement rooms. This property is offered in good structural order .All mains services are connected

